* Beginning with this issue the figures in these columns represent the number of cities in the various geographic sections for which prices are reported instead of the number of country stations or other points at which milk is bought for these cities.

The States making up the geographic divisions are as follows: New England - Maine, N.H., Vt., Mass., R.I., and Conn.; Middle Atlantic - N.Y., N.J., and Pa.; E. North Central - Ohio, Ind., Ill., Mich., and Wisc.; W. North Central - Minn., Iowa, Mo., N.Dak., S.Dak., Nebr., and Kansas; South Atlantic - Del., Md., D.C., Va., W.Va., N.C., S.C., Ga., and Fla.; E. South Central - Ky., Tenn., Ala., and Miss.; W. South Central - Ark., La., Okla., and Texas; Mountain - Mont., Wyo., Colo., N.Mex., Idaho, Ariz., Utah, and Nev.; Pacific - Wash., Oreg., and Calif.

Table II - July Cost and Selling Prices

Cost Prices are for standard grade milk of 3.5% quality. Delivered city prices include country station and transportation charges when such are included. In the cities marked thus (*) the price given does not apply to surplus milk.

Selling prices are for that quality of milk commonly sold in the city for which prices are given.

July Fluid Milk Market More Stable

Reports received by the Bureau indicate that there were fewer changes in milk prices during July than had occurred previous months. Average prices paid producers show a small increase over June, but this amounted to but 14¢ per 100 lbs. compared with the July 1920 average of $3.33, however, the reduction is 78¢. There is still more or less of a surplus production in most parts of the country, although hot and dry weather have caused poorer pasture conditions and have cut down milk production so that the surplus has been materially decreased, and in some sections no price reductions for surplus milk were to be made during the month. The outlook for August points to supply and demand being more nearly equal. It is reported that in a few cities very successful milk campaigns have been carried on, whereby a greater interest in the consumption has been stimulated. Butter markets are firm and have been all month, and cheese markets are now very firm following heavy export buying the past two weeks.
